My uncle Harry was a very good student when he was at school. His favourite subjects were History and Geography. Then he was a farmer on his farm in Prague. He had a lot of animals there. He didn't have a pet when he was a child but he had a lot of toys. His big hobby was repairing toys and cars. He could ride a bike when he was five years old but he couldn't draw and paint. Now he lives in our town near our house. He's old now (he was seventy-two last week!) but I like him very much.
